Some of the students who were not participating in the inappropriate physical interactions with C.K. used their cell phones to video tape the encounter and later posted the video on social media sites. John Rosi was aware of the video recordings of the inappropriate physical interactions and failed to take appropriate actions to stop the recordings.

8. On February, 2 2012, John Rosi was informed that a complaint had been made to the Peninsula School District concerning his lack of appropriate supervision of students putting them at risk of injury. John Rosi was placed on Administrative leave with pay while the Peninsula School District conducted inquiry into the complaint.

/
