

M E M O

2/23/90

To: Sean Callahan

From: Guy Cornwell

Re: Staff Practices Report - Chuck Woolsey

It has recently come to my attention that Mr. Woolsey is again accused of drinking on KVH Property. This latest report was made by Preston Kinney, KVH Family Teacher.

Kinney states that Mr. Woolsey arrived at his Family Teaching Home on 2/22/90 at aprox. Midnight, reeking of alcohol, and obviously under the influence. Mr. Woolsey had in his possession a "half rack" of beer.

Kinney further reports that this is the second occurrence of this type. The first occurred about one month ago and this time there were KVH youth present. Mr. Woolsey was apparently bragging to the youth that he had just been in a fight. Kinney instructed the youth to go to their rooms.

In the past I have reported other incidents to Mr. Woolsey's supervisor. KVH Staff report frequent incidents where it has appeared that Mr. Woolsey was either under the influence or recovering from the "night before".

This type of recurring behavior is severe and not in keeping with the work rules of KVH.

Please advise.

