Thirty calendar days have transpired since the mailing to you of a Proposed Order of Permanent Revocation. Your failure to make a timely appeal of such order authorizes this agency to issue a Final Order of Revocation based on the Finding(s) of Fact and Conclusion(s) of Law set forth in the Proposed Order of Permanent Revocation. Therefore, under the provisions of the Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 180-86-75, the following is hereby entered:

FINDING(S) OF FACT:

1. You hold a currently valid Washington educational certificate allowing you to teach in this state. That certificate was issued on 8/15/94 and expires on 8/31/97.

2. On June 6, 1996, you were found guilty by plea, in the Superior Court of the state of Washington, in and for the County of Skagit, of Child Molestation First Degree. This is a felony crime in this state (RCW 9A.44.083).

JON EDMOND ANSON
FINAL ORDER OF REVOCATION -1-

3. On or about April 10, 1996 you did engage in sexual contact with a first grade student who was less than twelve years of age and not married to you, a crime against the laws of this state.

4. You are currently serving a seventy month sentence in a facility under the jurisdiction of the Washington State Department of Corrections, as ordered by the court.

5. You have been ordered to have no contact with minor children unless supervised by an adult who is aware of your offense, and who has been approved in advance by the supervising Community Corrections Officer.

6. You have been ordered to hold no position of trust or authority involving children.

7. You have been ordered to avoid places where children congregate.

8. You have been ordered to not initiate or prolong physical contact with children for any reason.

9. You have been ordered to successfully enroll in, participate in, and complete a treatment program for sex offenders established a Washington State Certified Sexual Deviancy Therapist, or the Washington State Department of Corrections.

CONCLUSION(S) OF LAW:

1. Based on the above Finding(s) of Fact, the Superintendent of Public Instruction has determined JON EDMOND ANSON lacks the good moral character and personal fitness required by WAC 180-75-081 to serve as a certificated employee in the schools of this state.
2. You have demonstrated a behavioral problem which endangers the educational welfare or personal safety of students, which is in violation of WAC 180-75-081(3).
3. Your actions have materially and substantially impaired your ability to serve as a professional within the public and private schools of this state, as outlined in WAC 180-75-081(2).
4. Due to the nature of the crime, the revocation of your certificate will be permanent, without option for reinstatement, as outlined in RCW section 28A.410.090(2) which states:

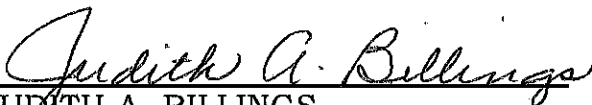

Any such certificate or permit authorized under this chapter or chapter 28A.405 RCW shall be revoked by the authority authorized to grant the certificate upon a guilty plea or the conviction of any felony crime involvingsexual offenses under chapter 9A.44 RCW where a minor is the victim.....

Mandatory permanent revocation upon a guilty plea or the conviction of felony crimes specified under this subsection shall apply to such convictions or guilty pleas which occur after July 23, 1989.

ORDER

Therefore, the Washington Educational Certificate of JON EDMOND ANSON, Certificate No. 298628R, is hereby permanently revoked.

DATED This 28th day of October, 1996.

JUDITH A. BILLINGS
Superintendent of Public Instruction
State of Washington
