

Security Personnel Services

We Worry About Security So You Don't Have To

You need professional security officers on-site to handle your security needs, and that's what Allied Universal® provides. But there's more. Our technology specialists and local management teams are also right there to respond quickly to your specific needs, and they have the support of our National Accounts team.

Allied Universal® will be there to protect your employees and facilities while you focus on running your business

Discover Why All Security Companies Are Not Alike

When you partner with us, you can depend on our experience and expertise:

- Our well-trained security officers monitor and patrol your facility, ready to respond quickly and effectively in any situation.
- Our technology specialists consult with you to design and install a state-of-the-art security system tailored to your specific needs.
- Our local management team anticipates, responds to and adapts to your needs.
- We provide regular reports to help you evaluate the effectiveness of your security program. And we offer thoughtful and effective solutions when your needs and circumstances change.